Good Evening Trojans!

This is Principal Jackson with important information about the week.

- CAASPP Testing begins on Tuesday in the area of math. Please see the attachment how to help your child prepare for these very important exams.
- 8th graders will have their hearing tests done in their ELA classes on Tuesday.
- Science credit recovery classes continue tomorrow through Thursday after school from 3:15-4:15. Remember that attendance is mandatory.
- Congratulations to our wind ensemble who earned an outstanding rating at their festival last week. They sounded amazing and we are so proud of all of them.
- Our Top 100 event will take place tomorrow night at the La Habra Community Center. This is an invite only ticketed event and we are so proud of our top 7th and 8th graders being honored.
- Progress reports for struggling students will be visible in your Aeries parent portal on Friday afternoon. Please make sure to check as there is only 6 weeks left in the school year.
- We are wishing our math field competitors the best of luck at their competition on Saturday.
- Save-the-date: Our Open House will take place on Thursday, May 9th from 5-7pm. Performances will begin at 5:15 p.m. on the north blacktop followed by classroom visits from 6-7 p.m.
- ASB is in need of candy donations to make leis for graduation. No chocolate. Here are examples of what they need. Donations can be dropped off at the office between 7:30-4.
- Stoves on strike: Take a night off from cooking and enjoy some pizza and ice cream! La Crosta pizza and Brusters Real Ice cream have teamed up for a Stoves on Strike fundraiser for our Rancho PTA:
